

Sales Agent Exam Prep Course

Designed to prepare an agent to assist in passing the Promissor Real Estate Exam required by the Maine Real Estate Commission.

Who is the course for? All currently licensed sales agents who need to move to the Associate Broker License. Also, any agent who has failed the Promissor exam.

Will the new Associate Broker class prepare the Sales Agent to pass the Promissor exam? NO! Effective July 1, 2006, the new Associate Broker course does NOT prepare the agent for the Promissor exam.

If you are currently a Sales Agent and became licensed as a result of passing the Promissor exam, do I need this course? NO! You simply need to take the new Associate Broker course.

What is involved with the Prep Course? One day (9:00am – 3:30pm), text books (“Guide to Passing the Promissor Real Estate Exam” and “Maine Real Estate Exam Prep”), and student comments of the Promissor exam who have successfully passed.

What is the cost and who is the instructor? $175.00 including all materials and Kit Foster is the instructor.

Where and when are the classes?

December 6th St. Paul Center, 136 State Street, Augusta

What is required to register? Just a $75 deposit, but register early!

Please register me for the December 6th in Augusta

I am including a $75.00 deposit for class. I understand the balance is due at the first class.
